INITIAL and ADDITIONAL DISCLOSURE

Following the Directive of the Ministry, the attached documents comprise full disclosure of the Crown's case. These materials are being provided to you on condition they be kept strictly confidential, save in the confines of your solicitor-client relationship. This disclosure is provided to you on the basis that you are giving your undertaking as a lawyer pursuant to Rules 5.1-5 and 5.1-6 of the Rules of Professional Conduct.

- 1) You may use these materials solely for the purpose of making full answer and defence to the charges identified in the materials;
- 2) Any material provided in electronic format, including video or audio recordings, must be kept in the custody of counsel. No copies may be made of any of the electronic or digital material provided. If electronic or digital copies of any of these materials are required for court purposes, arrangements must be made in advance with the Crown Attorney who will provide copies for use in court.
- 3) Should you cease to act for the accused, you will immediately notify this office and immediately return the disclosure materials to the Crown Attorney's Office. (NB – Should you make an application to remove your name as counsel of record, the Crown Attorney's Office will oppose such application until you have returned the disclosure materials or can confirm on the record that the materials have been forwarded to the accused.)
- 4) All future disclosure on this file is subject to these same conditions.

The Ministry of the Attorney General's policy on disclosure provides as follows:

Defence counsel must not leave disclosure material in the unsupervised possession of an accused person, or give disclosure materials to the public, as discussed at pp.170 and 217 of the Martin Report. Defence counsel must maintain custody or control over disclosure materials so that copies of such materials are not improperly disseminated. These obligations are part of defence counsel's duties as an officer of the court and violations should be reported to the Law Society. Special arrangements may be made between defence and Crown counsel with respect to maintaining control over disclosure materials where an accused is in custody and where the volume of the material disclosed makes it impractical for defence counsel to be present while material is viewed. Where defence counsel refuses to give an undertaking or make an arrangement consistent with the above provisions, Crown counsel should make disclosure available by means of controlled and supervised, yet adequate and private, access to the disclosure material.

If this material is incomplete, illegible, or if it lacks material which you expected to receive under the Disclosure Directive, please write to us as soon as possible. Our fax number is 613-239-1214.

To the extent that this disclosure contains copies of documentary evidence, this letter is notice that copies of such documents will be tendered in evidence at the trial, preliminary hearing or both, pursuant to Sections 23-30 of the Canada Evidence Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. C-5 or Sections 258, 259, 667(4), 145(11) or 260(5) of the Criminal Code of Canada, R.S.C. 1985, c. C-46.

DIVULGATION PREMIÈRE et SUPPLÉMENTAIRE

Conformément à la directive du ministère, le dossier ci-joint comprend la divulgation complète de la preuve de la Couronne. Ces pièces vous sont communiquées sous condition qu'elles restent strictement confidentielles, et ne pourront être divulguées que dans le cadre de vos échanges avocat-client. Ces pièces vous sont communiquées dans la mesure où vous prenez engagement en vertu de les règles 5.1-5 et 5.1-6 du Code de déontologie.

- 1) Vous pouvez utiliser ces pièces uniquement dans le but de livrer un plaidoyer complet contre les accusations formulées dans ces dernières.
- 2) Tout matériel fourni en format électronique, y compris les enregistrements sonores et visuels, doivent rester en possession de l'avocat de la défense. Aucune copie de ce matériel, électronique ou digital, ne doit être faite. Si des copies électroniques ou digitales sont nécessaires en salle d'audience, des dispositions doivent être prises au préalable avec le procureur de la Couronne; celui-ci fournira les copies pour usage à la cour.
- 3) Dans l'éventualité où vous cesseriez de représenter l'accusé, vous devez en aviser le bureau sur-le-champ et retourner les pièces communiquées sans délai au bureau du Procureur de la Couronne. (Note : Sans le renvoi des pièces communiquées ou une confirmation dans le dossier de leur transfert à l'accusé, le bureau du Procureur de la Couronne s'opposera à toute requête visant à vous retirer en tant qu'avocat inscrit au dossier.)
- 4) Les pièces à venir concernant ce dossier sont assujetties aux mêmes conditions.

La politique sur les divulgations du ministère du Procureur général est la suivante :

L'avocat de la défense ne doit pas laisser sans surveillance un document faisant l'objet d'une divulgation en possession d'un accusé, ni le mettre à la disposition du public, comme en fait foi le Rapport Martin aux pages 170 et 217. L'avocat de la défense doit conserver la garde ou le contrôle des pièces communiquées, de sorte que des copies n'en soient pas indûment diffusées. Ces obligations font partie des devoirs de l'avocat de la défense en tant qu'officier de justice; toute infraction doit être déclarée au barreau. Des ententes particulières peuvent être conclues entre la défense et l'avocat de la Couronne dans le souci de maintenir le contrôle sur les pièces communiquées lorsque l'accusé est en détention préventive et que le volume des pièces communiquées empêche l'avocat d'être présent lorsqu'elles sont consultées. Si l'avocat de la défense refuse de s'engager ou de conclure une entente qui correspond aux dispositions décrites ci-dessus, l'avocat-conseil de la Couronne doit rendre possible la consultation supervisée, contrôlée, adéquate et privée des pièces communiquées.

Si les pièces qui devaient vous être communiquées conformément à la directive du ministère sont incomplètes, illisibles ou manquantes, veuillez nous en faire part le plus tôt possible par télécopieur au 613 239-1214.

Dans la mesure où la divulgation contient des copies de preuve documentaire, la présente vous avise que les copies de tels documents seront présentées en preuve au procès, à l'enquête préliminaire ou aux deux, selon les articles 23-30 de la Loi sur la preuve au Canada, L.R.C. 1985, chapitre C-5 ou articles 258, 259, 667(4), 145(11) ou 260(5) du Code criminel du Canada, L.R.C. 1985, chapitre C-46.

SYNOPSIS:

[Your Honour,

On Wednesday 28th March 2018, the accused Sean Von Dehn 73/05/06 was verbally aggressive with kitchen staff and was refusing to leave while at The Salvation Army, located at 171 George St, in the City of Ottawa.

The accused continued to be disruptive; swearing and being hostile to-wards staff. For that, as well as refusing to leave the kitchen he was discharged from the Life skills Program and TDA (temporarily denied access) to the Salvation Army Ottawa Booth Centre.

The accused left for a few minutes but when he returned he said he refused to be denied shelter at the facility and went upstairs to the 4th floor, despite being told doing so would result in staffs need to call the police to have him removed.

At approximately 7:50, police arrived on scene and asked the accused to leave, he refused. Police advised the accused that he was under arrest for refusing to leave when directed. Police took physical control of the accused because he was non compliant; grabbing a hold of his bedroom door frame and tensing his body trying to prevent officers from removing him.

Once in cuffs the accused was searched where a small quantity of marijuana was located on his person, he was advised of the additional charges.

Rights to counsel, cautions and 524 warning were read.

The accused was transported to central cells and held for show cause.

SYNOPSIS:

[Your Honour,

On Wednesday 28th March 2018, the accused Sean Von Dehn 73/05/06 was verbally aggressive with kitchen staff and was refusing to leave while at The Salvation Army, located at 171 George St, in the City of Ottawa.

The accused continued to be disruptive; swearing and being hostile to-wards staff. For that, as well as refusing to leave the kitchen he was discharged from the Life skills Program and TDA (temporarily denied access) to the Salvation Army Ottawa Booth Centre.

The accused left for a few minutes but when he returned he said he refused to be denied shelter at the facility and went upstairs to the 4th floor, despite being told doing so would result in staffs need to call the police to have him removed.

At approximately 7:50, police arrived on scene and asked the accused to leave, he refused. Police advised the accused that he was under arrest for refusing to leave when directed. Police took physical control of the accused because he was non compliant; grabbing a hold of his bedroom door frame and tensing his body trying to prevent officers from removing him.

Once in cuffs the accused was searched where a small quantity of marijuana was located on his person, he was advised of the additional charges.

Rights to counsel, cautions and 524 warning were read.

The accused was transported to central cells and held for show cause.

08. POLICE OFFICER STATEMENTS

Case No: 379141

Police Service: OTTAWA POLICE SERVICE
Occurrence Number: 18-71508
Statement of: JENKYN CHRISTOPHER MA - 2209
Type: IA - INVESTIGATIVE ACTION
Subject:
Start Date/Time: 28 Mar 2018 - 10:33

On Wednesday 28th March 2018, at approximately 0746 hours, I Cst Jenkyn along with Cst Griffith were dispatched to 171 George St, Ottawa for an unwanted person to be removed.

Information received that Sean VON DEHN 1973/05/06 was being disruptive with staff and subsequently asked to leave. VON DEHN refused to do and police were subsequently requested to have him removed from the premise.

A records query indicated that VON DEHN is currently wanted by Guelph Police Service for fraud and failing to appear in court (bench and first instance warrant). A first instance warrant was issued by Toronto Police for revoke of surety. Another bench warrant was issued by Toronto Police for weapons dangerous/carry concealed weapon.

At approximately 0750 hours I arrived on scene where I was met by Kimberley LOVELL. LOVELL directed police to the forth floor where they were met by another staff member, Natalie YOUNGER.

Staff explained that VON DEHN needed to be removed due to his behaviour (statement obtained). Police made their way to VON DEHN's room where they spoke with him at his door.

VON DEHN told police that he has a right to be at this facility and that he would not leave. Police explained that he has to leave for a few hours due to his behaviour. VON DEHN continued to talk over police, refusing to leave, he was subsequently advised that he was under arrest for failing to leave premise when directed (0755 hours). As I attempted to gain physical control of VON DEHN he grabbed onto his bedroom door frame. Once pulled away, he began tensing his body trying to prevent officers from placing him into cuffs, he was subsequently grounded so he could be placed into hands without further incident.

Once in cuffs VON DEHN had calmed down and was taken to my cruiser where he was searched.

Given VON DEHN warrants on file; failing to appear in court and concerns about him returning to this location and causing further issues he was transported to central cells and held for show cause.

I later served VON DEHN a provincial offence notice for reusing to leave premise when directed TPA 2(1)(b).

At approximately 7:20 this writer received a radio call from Front Line Worker Kimberly Lovell stating that client Sean Von Dehn had been verbally aggressive with kitchen staff and was refusing to leave. Sean made his way to the front desk and told me he'd politely asked for a new plate of food (as he did not want the food already on the counter) and was refused by kitchen staff. For that, as well as refusing to leave the kitchen when asked (please see the incident report by Kimberly Lovell for everything that transpired in the kitchen) I told him he would be discharged from the Life skills Program and TDA (temporarily denied access) to the Salvation Army Ottawa Booth Centre.

Sean left for a few minutes but when he returned he said he refused to be denied shelter at our facility and went upstairs to the 4th floor despite being told doing so would result in our need to call the police to have him removed.

Kimberly called the police while myself and Front Line Worker Peter Proulx went upstairs to talk to Sean, and observe in case his behaviour turned violent or destructive. Sean stayed in his room but eventually opened the door and was deciding if he would leave until my boss, Jason Prevost, arrived so he could speak to him. At approximately 7:50, Kimberly came upstairs with three Ottawa Police officers who arrested Sean after he refused to leave.

INCIDENT DETAILS

Who: Sean Von Dehn

Where: Kitchen of Salvation Army

When did the incident occur: March 28th, 2018 at Approx. 7:20 am

When was the report written: March 28th, 2018 at Approx. 7:35 am

What Happened?

This writer was downstairs in the kitchen for the meal line when I overheard a small commotion coming from the line. Kitchen staff Keisha and Carrine asked this writer for assistance due to a client (Sean Von Dehn) being verbally aggressive towards them. This writer intervened and asked Sean what was going on while he was still getting his items together for breakfast. Sean stated that the staff was rude to him and he did not care. While attempting to get Sean's side of what happened he continued to repeat that he did not care and that he asked for a different plate of food and the kitchen staff refused to give it to him. Kitchen staff Keisha and Corrine stated that he already touched the plate and had to use the plate that was given to him. Sean then proceeded to give the kitchen staff the middle finger and proceeded to sit down and eat his food. This writer asked Sean to please leave the building because verbally abusing staff is unacceptable behavior. Sean stated that he was not going anywhere until he speaks with Jason. This writer explained that speaking with Jason was not accessible at the current moment and due to his behavior, he was not welcomed in shelter. Sean responded by telling this writer that "he doesn't fucking care". This writer gave Sean the option of leaving the premises on his own or having police escort him out. Sean told this writer to "call the fucking police because I am not going anywhere!" This writer radioed front desk for additional support. FLW Peter came downstairs and spoke with Sean, advising him to speak with Supervisor Tallie upstairs. This writer called Supervisor Tallie to update her on the kitchen staff side as well as the entire situation. This writer

Came upstairs to write the IR. Supervisor Tallie was speaking with Sean and he ended up leaving the building. Sean returned a few moments later and proceeded to go up to the 4th floor, although he was asked to leave. Sean refused.

ACTIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS:

This writer contacted OPS non-emergency at 7:41am to remove Sean from the building, as he would not leave on his own. At approximately 7:33am OPS arrived and subdued Sean upstairs on the 4th floor. It is recommended this client is TDA 24hrs. Minimum.
