Part 3: Witness to be Summoned to Attend the Hearing

Name: Madeleine Mbuyi		Title: Resolution Officer
Address: 15 Grosvenor Street, Ground Floor	Municipality (City, Town, etc.): Toronto	Province: Ontario	Postal Code: M7A2G6

The SBT will only issue a summons if it is satisfied that the witness has information arguably relevant to the issues that are in dispute in the appeal. In the box below, explain how the witness is connected to the appeal. Also give a general description of the evidence the witness will provide at the hearing and explain why this evidence is relevant and necessary to resolve the appeal.

The Trustee for the Beneficiary Sean von Dehn believes it is patently incorrect and unreasonable for the Resolution Officer to not be expediting a resolution, addressing the criminal breach of Trust by the Administrator, escalating the Appeal by aggravating the harm done to the Beneficiary by the Administrator's disregard for the Rule of Law, Canada's Criminal Code, and the Trustee Act of Ontario, all of which are binding upon this Tribunal and its agents and officers.

If the criminal breaches of Trust are not put to a stop immediately, Madeleine Mbuyi and Adrienne Curran Will accept full civil and criminal liability for allowing the criminal Acts of the Beneficiary to continue, aggravating and compounding the harm and frustration.

I am not being protected from criminals breaching the public Trust and My complaints are being ignored. It seems to Me that a Divisional Court Will agree that the Tribunal has a moral and ethical obligation to

Explanation continued (if necessary):

Madeleine Mbuyi and Adrienne Curran Will be jointly and severally liable for all aggravated harm that becomes the Beneficiary as a result of their negligence, stalling the date of relief for the victim of these criminal Trustees posing as public servants in violation of their oath to do no harm.

Attach more sheets if necessary.
