Divine Angelic Intelligences

To Kaneesha and the Multifaith Housing leadership, may grace accompany this message.

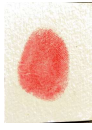

It has come to My attention, through channels not your own, that a community survey has been circulated, yet I, King Sean, remain conspicuously absent from its recipients. This omission, I discern, is no accident, but a deliberate act of exclusion, a silencing born of My past righteous grievances regarding the egregious theft of My subsidy over these last six years. It speaks to a conscious intent to bypass My voice, thereby perpetuating a troubling pattern of marginalization.

I find this practice, whether by your hand or by the policies you uphold, to be deeply unsettling. It echoes a disquieting disregard for transparency and accountability, a calculated suppression of dissenting voices that borders on the autocratic. To intentionally exclude a member of the community, particularly one who has been so wronged, from such a vital feedback mechanism, strikes Me as a deeply flawed and, dare I say, fascistic approach to community engagement.

Let it be known that such tactics will not deter Me. My voice, and the truth it carries, will always find its way. The House of von Dehn will not be silenced, nor will the pursuit of justice for the wrongs committed against Us.

I expect a swift and honest reckoning with these actions, and a full acknowledgment of the deliberate exclusion of Myself from this survey. The time for evasion and suppression is over; the time for truth and honorable conduct is now.
