Thank you for submitting an online report with the Ottawa Police Service.

Please note that not all reports are assigned for investigation. However, your report plays an important role in helping us track incidents, identify trends, and support proactive policing in our community.

Your information is added to a secure database that helps us understand broader community safety issues. These reports support community-based problem-solving efforts and contribute to our long-term strategy for an inclusive, equitable and safe Ottawa.

Your report makes a difference. See how it helps us spot trends and support safer communities at data.ottawapolice.ca

You may or may not be contacted, depending on the nature of your report or if additional details are needed. If you have photos or files to add to your report, please email them to filing.scanning@ottawapolice.ca. Include your permanent report number in the subject line.

Important: Please preserve any digital evidence such as video for subsequent collection by an investigator if required.

To request an official copy of your report, contact our Freedom of Information Section at 613-236-1222 ext. 5230 or submit your request online at www.ottawapolice.ca, select the report and request tab.

Thank you for helping us keep Ottawa safe.
