NOTICE OF RETALIATION - LTB-L-082848-26

Dear Registrar for LTB,

Please accept this formal submission and attached Exhibit for placement on the official record in file LTB-L-082848-26 prior to the issuance of the final written order.

Purpose of Submission

This notice places on the record an immediate act of retaliation perpetrated by the Landlord on the exact same day that the Landlord's N6 and N7 eviction applications were dismissed on the record for unclean hands.

Summary of Retaliatory Conduct

1. On November 10, 2026, following the hearing in LTB-L-082848-26, the Landlord's applications were dismissed on the record after a findings of unclean hands.

2. That same day, the Landlord issued a new, unlawful notice threatening eviction and demanding payment of an alleged fine.

3. The Landlord's notice fails to specify what the alleged fine is for and provides fraudulent accounting ledger showing theft of thousands of dollars in violation of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 and Canada's criminal code.

Relevance to the Record and Pending Order

While the evidentiary portion of the November 10, 2026 hearing has concluded, this post-hearing conduct directly corroborates the pattern of unclean hands, harassment, and retaliatory eviction attempts and a serious lack of professionalism already established before the Board. It demonstrates that the Landlord intends to continue issuing baseless eviction threats immediately following an adverse ruling.

The Tenant requests that this correspondence and the attached PDF copy of the Landlord's November 10, 2026 notice (labeled as Exhibit A) be placed before Adjudicator Christina Budweth for consideration in relation to bad faith findings, costs, or any further directions the Board deems just under the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006.

In accordance with the Tenant's standing notice of service, the Tenant consents to and requests all tribunal correspondence and service exclusively via email at this address, gnosticwisdom37@gmail.com.

Respectfully submitted,

In Good Faith and with Clean Hands
